Macy Faculty Scholars Program

The Macy Faculty Scholars Program is designed to identify and nurture the careers of promising educational innovators in medicine and nursing. With support from the Macy Foundation, scholars will implement new educational innovations at their home institutions and participate in career development activities that prepare them for leadership roles.

For more information about the selection criteria as well as instructions on how to apply to the program, visit their website and read the 2016 program brochure.

Chosen scholars will receive:

- Salary support of up to $100,000 per year for two years
- At least 50 percent protected time for two years to pursue educational projects
- Active mentorship by a senior faculty member at their institution
- Access to the program’s National Advisory Committee
- Opportunities to participate in the Macy Faculty Scholars alumni network and attend the Annual Macy Faculty Scholars Meeting

The deadline for applications is Wednesday, February 17, 2016. All applications must be completed online. Anyone wishing to be considered for these nominations should submit 1) a CV or NIH biosketch; 2) a one page description of the proposed project; and 3) a letter of nomination from his or her department chair (division chief, institute director) to Dr. Michelle Broido, Associate Vice Chancellor for Biomedical Research, Office of Research, Health Sciences, by noon on December 16, 2015. These should be sent to Dr. Broido c/o Ms. Selena Crawford, sac32@pitt.edu.

Internal deadline: Noon (12:00 PM), Wednesday, December 16, 2015.
Application Deadline to Foundation: Wednesday, February 17, 2016.
